Ashley is a member of our Prepaid Legal Services team, representing union members in bankruptcy and consumer issues. With experience in arbitration, negotiations and litigation, she is honored to advocate on behalf of working people and their families.

Throughout her career, Ashley has provided a variety of important legal services to clients navigating difficult situations. She has focused much of her practice on consumer bankruptcy and has represented tenants in landlord-tenant litigation. She also has counseled clients on matters related to mortgage foreclosure and domestic relations, working tirelessly to negotiate resolutions that achieve the best possible results.

As a litigator, Ashley has the insight and skill to guide clients through significant legal challenges and ensure they are treated with fairness and dignity. She utilizes expertise gained from experience in a wide range of practice areas to advocate for her clients' best interests and is relentless in her fight to make sure they are heard.

WHAT INSPIRES ME ABOUT MY WORK

I find it rewarding to vigorously advocate for the working individual facing difficult and often sensitive legal problems. As the daughter of self-employed small business owners, I relate well with clients and strive to provide compassionate, hands-on representation.

AWAY FROM WORK

When I'm not working, I enjoy reading, watching true crime documentaries, visiting Valley Forge Park, and spending time with family and my two dogs.
