An experienced labor law attorney, Tom Gribbin focuses his practice on the representation of private and public sector labor unions and individual employees. Included among his clients are police, firefighters and correctional officers. He regularly advocates for clients in grievance and interest arbitrations, mediation, administrative proceedings and before state and federal courts. Tireless and fierce, Tom champions the cause of his clients, always striving to put forward the best possible case.

Tom has a long history of representing clients before the Philadelphia Civil Service Commission (CSC) and the National Labor Relations Board (NLRB). He also appears before the Public Employment Relations Commission (PERC) in New Jersey and the Public Employment Relations Board (PERB) in Delaware—state equivalents of the NLRB—as well as the Pennsylvania Labor Relations Board (PLRB).

WHAT INSPIRES ME ABOUT MY WORK

“What inspires me is that we’re fighting the good fight and working hard for hard-working men and women and their families.”

AWAY FROM WORK

“I’m an avid golfer—in actuality, I’m the firm’s designated golfer—and at one time I had a 7 handicap. I spend time with my three girls and their softball and swim teams. We enjoy vacationing as a family in Martha’s Vineyard.”
