Our capabilities include car accidents, truck accidents, motorcycle accidents, construction accidents, product liability, premises liability, pedestrian accidents, workplace accidents and other types of accidents leading to civil litigation.

If you or a loved one has been seriously injured due to someone else's negligence (carelessness) or recklessness, our personal injury lawyers will take the time to thoroughly review your case, explain the legal process to you and aggressively pursue all of the compensation to which you may be entitled under the law. Depending on the circumstances, the compensation sought may include medical expenses, financial losses such as lost work, pain and suffering and emotional distress. Injury victims may also be able to seek an additional sum known as punitive damages arising out of the defendant's wrongdoing.
